RESTAURANTE KILO

Eat, drink, dance, and be merry, for the world is coming to an end. That's what they say, and you need to come and see it.

GO

SAGRADA FAMILIA

The most famous church in Barcelona, and perhaps even in Spain. Ever since building works began 132 years ago, it has attracted many people. Or rather, everyone.

GÜELL PARK

Designed by Gaudí as an urban development, it crowns the city of Barcelona. A whim that ceased to be a development to become a public park. Luckily for us.

BARRIO GÓTICO

If you have an imagination, you can feel like a mediaeval king in these old streets. You've just got to pretend that there are no kebab shops.

LAS RAMBLAS

Flowers, living statues, and Canaletas fountain. The best-known boulevard in the city is a must.

LA BOQUERÍA MARKET

A paradise for the senses. Smells, colours, flavours, among the hustle of those shopping and selling.

TIBIDABO

A natural space with a great view and best of all... attractions! Attractive, isn't it?

PASEO DE GRACIA

One of the main avenues in Barcelona, with delightful window displays and modernist architecture. Scale-covered Casa Batlló and Casa Milà (La Pedrera), both by Gaudí, are the cherry on the cake that is this shopping area, with shops such as Chanel, Cartier, and Dolce & Gabbana.

LA BARCELONETA

The fishermen's district, the Mediterranean, the beach... in the middle of the city. Amazing!
